

COMMON LAW ADMISSION TEST – 2009 RESULTS
CORRIGENDUM

In case of the candidates who have applied under more than one category, the OMR could not pick up more than one category and it was detected on physical verification of their Applications. As such these candidates names exist in only one category list and now have also been included in the second category for which they have applied and they shall be offered admission, if a seat is available, as per their merit and rank in the second category also. The details of the candidates' are given below:
